HOLLE FILLY MAKES EVERY POST A WINNING ONE IN HANDICAP.

Dick Rose Wins Two-Year-Old Race-Blue Lee a Good One-No Engine Runs Poorly.

New Orleans, La., January 4 .- There was snap to the racing at the Fair Grounds this afternoon and the big attendance enjoyed the sport immensely. The two-year-old race, this one for colts, again held out most interest. The much heralded No was among the starters and was accorded steady backing by those who had read about his supposed prowess. The Hapsburg colt, however, disappointed them. Owner McCarren was displeased with the manner in which Troxler rode the colt. The purse went to Dick Rose, which had the hustling guidance of Jack Martin. Blue Lee, coupled in the betting with Sabado, as the Burlew & O'Neill entry both making their first appearance, was a fast going second, with Toro a respectable third. There is good ground for the claim made by many that Blue Lee is the best youngster shown so far this season. was away poorly, closed up a big gap in truly racehorse style and would have won at a longer Troxler, said No Engine's poor running was due to the fact that he was forced to pull the colt up soon after the start, thereby practically ruining his chances of winning. It is not likely that No Engine will start tomorrow. He will be entered for a race at City Park Monday and Perrett will probably ride him.

Colloquy, the receding favorite, won the sprint handicap with Judge Davey second. The Holle filly shouldered her impost of 115 pounds as if it was a feather and dashing into a long lead from the start made every post a winning one. The best finish of the afternoon came in the fourth race when Orbicular and Missouri Lad fought it out through the stretch, former winning in the last few strides. Orbicuwas given royal support and the bookmakers lost heavily by his victory. Big fields were the order in the remainder of the races and each furnished an upset. J. Martin and C. Vandusen each rode two winners, Nicol and Mountain taking the other two.

Among the arrivals today were E. R. Bradley from Chicago and W. M. Wallace from Memphis. The latter has six horses wintering at Memphis.

Jockey Beckman was suspended for one day for his rough riding in the fifth race. Jockey Vandusen was fined $25 for disobedience at the post.

Wooltessa, which won the first race was purchased for $100 yesterday by L. Schuckman from J. Huff-

CROKER MAY RACE AGAIN OVER HERE.

Names Blakestown, Winner of Irish Oaks, for Suburban-Handicap Entries Rolling In.

New York, January 4.—Additional entries received today bring the number for the Brooklyn Handicap up to sixty-five, and the Brighton up to sixty-nine. Up to four o'clock this afternoon seventy-four entries had been received for the Suburban. far-away points are still to be heard from and all records may be broken for the three big spring events. Salvidere, the champion two-year-old of last season, is named for each of the events. The three-year-olds are in the ascendancy for the Subur ban, there being twenty-nine of this age, twenty-six four-year-olds, sixteen five-year-olds, and three sixyear-olds

Richard Croker, the ex-Tammany chieftain, who has raced abroad exclusively for several years, has entered Blakestown for the Suburban. is a five-year-old mare, by Lesterlin—Stella, which won the Irish Oaks in 1905 for Mr. Croker. The single entry from Mr. Croker is somewhat mystifying, as he had given no evidence of his intention to race again in this country.

SOME THINGS REFORMERS FORGET.

"In making a crusade against racing in this state," said a prominent owner of race horses to the New York Sun, "the reformers possibly forget a few things. In the first place, racing has the support of thousands of citizens of all classes. The sport is a business conducted on honorable lines and affords as much of a chance to speculate as Wall street. the second place, the agricultural societies up the are cutting up each year about $300,000, accruing from the state racing tax, which has made various county fairs most successful. In the third place, the breeding bureau of the Jockey Club, in placing about thirty royally-bred stallions at the disposal of up-state breeders, has strengthened its posi tion materially. Furthermore, the racetrack owners can show proof that in no way do they recognize or receive a penny in tribute from the betting element. Racing has grown into an immense industry. sands of persons have been enabled to gain a livelihood, while powerful interests have been indirectly benefited. Just why reformers can come to Albany from other states with a plan to interfere with rac ing when it is on the top wave of prosperity and has the support of the public at large is a puzzle. Persons who do not believe in racing are not compelled to visit the tracks, which are splendidly conducted and situated far away from the business section of When the fight begins at Albany you will find that the Jockey Club will stand on its merits. The stewards believe that racing under the present conditions is invulnerable."

TABULATED RECORD OF THE MAGNOLIA SELLING STAKES.

The Magnolia Stakes will be the main feature of New Orleans racing this afternoon. It is a selling dash of a mile and has been productive of good racing every since its establishment in 1898, when "Umbrella Bill" McGuigan's Boanerges took such fast ones as David and Timemaker into camp. Of its other winners, Cambrian and Major Daingerfield were great racers when in their prime. The history of the race

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FOLLANSBEE HANDICAP.

The Follansbee Handicap is one of the most popular of all the California Jockey Club's stakes with owners. It was named in compliment to one of the most popular American turfmen, "Jack" Follansbee, been contested by horses of great speed, its winning list including the names of such flyers as Mt. McGregor, Libertine, Yellow Tail, Articulate, San Nicholas, Honiton and Dr. Gardner. It had 117 nominations this year and the winner will land a tidy sum of money for its lucky owner. BETTING QUESTION IN TENNESSEE.

Legislature Expected to Pass a Law Against Handbooks and Let the Tracks Alone.

The recent action of the house of lords and house commons in piloting a measure through the English parliament prohibiting the making of sohandbooks on English horse gaged attention of legislators in Tennessee, of whom look with favor on the sport as it has been conducted in Tennessee for more than half a century past.

"From reports received from middle Tennessee there is every indication that, instead of an attack being made on pool selling and horse racing itself during the hours of the coming legislature, there will be an effort to show that all the damage done is by the handbooks and down-town poolrooms in the various cities where horse racing is fostered," says the Memphis Commercial Appeal. "Under the says the Memphis Commercial Appeal. present law of Tennessee it is asserted that any person can legally conduct a poolroom or handbook in any town while there is racing within the state. This permits the ordinary followers of racing to congregate in down-town places and gamble to their heart's content.

"A member of the so-called reform element that fought the racetrack people and interests has been recently converted, it is said, and will endeavor to show in the legislature that so long as any of the looked on evils of betting on horse racing are fined to the racetrack that little damage will be done except to those who dabble in the game. A measure will be looked for, it is said, to engage the attention of the assembly which may be worded something like the measure that has recently passed both houses of parliament in England and which reads like this:

'Any person frequenting or loitering in streets or public places on behalf of either himself or any other person, for the purpose of bookmaking or betting, or wagering, or agreeing to bet or wager, or paying, or receiving, or settling bets, shall on first conviction be liable to a fine of £10 ($50), and or second conviction £20 ($100). In ca third or subsequent offense or in case of a betting transaction with a person under the age of sixteen years the defendant is liable to fine and imprisonment upon conviction on indictment.'

'Some members of the reform element are on record as stating that it is down-town conditions during racing time in Memphis that aggravate nonpatrons of racing. The tout, the colored hustlers and ragged regiment in general, say those who have watched the conditions, congregate on the sidewalk, blocking traffic to such an extent that ladies are forced to take the streets in order to pass. Language not exactly fitted for ladies or other ears also formed basis for complaint from those who were actively engaged in the recent attempt to knock the racetracks out in this state and many are con-An attempt will be made to enact a verts now. measure which would confine all betting and congregations for betting in the betting ring within the racetrack proper."

Los Angeles, Cal., January 4.—The judicial as was in evidence today, jockeys McDaniel, C. Ross and Grand being the sufferers. McDaniel allowed Niblick to bump and crowd Sunray and Lucrece out of their strides on the far turn. He was severely reprimanded and suspended for six days. Ross has been cutting across in front at the starts with his mounts and for this offense in the third race today he was set down for fifteen days. Grand drew six days suspension from starter Dwyer for breaking up starts

The failure of Waterbury to win the fourth race was a source of keen disappointment to R. F. Car-man and James Blute, who backed the colt heavily. The eastrners here almost to a man won hand somely on Von Tromp's victory in the opening race

C. M., K., Chicago and Others. Cigarlighter and Bryan were erroneusly coupled as the De Arman en-try in the entries to the Rose Selling Stakes, run at Ascot Park January 1. Bryan had been run up and bought out of a selling race by J. B. Dunn, December 20. Backers of the De Arman entry had Cigarlighter running for them and are entitled to place and show money. The stipulation concerning Bryan cuts no figure in the case.

A. D., Chicago. It is strictly a matter of business in which the bookmaker who extended credit has the right to what the credit extended. Your contention that a certain named sum would have been "coming" if you had bet cash is correct, but not having bet cash you could only have coming the net sum You must perceive that of the sum you name that would have been contingently coming a part would have been your own cash previously put up.

TICKET SELLERS RETURN CHANGE.

Many persons, in undue haste to get inside the Ascot gates, have left their change at the box office and probably "cussed" the ticket sellers. In every instance, with one exception, the money has been returned to the losers, but there is a small bundle of change awaiting an owner at the box office Thursday afternoon a merchant bought a ticket and paid for it with a $20 gold piece, evidently be-lieving it to be $1. The ticket seller recognized the merchant and toted the change to him in the grandstand, greatly to the surprise and satisfaction of the merchant, who did not know of his loss until the money had been returned to him and he had taken an inventory of his cash.-Los Angeles News.

CROWD AT OAKLAND DISPUTES PLAC ING OF HORSES IN FIFTH RACE.

Starter Holtman Again Draws Fire-Judge Hopper Is III-Weather Gloomy and Track Muddy-Poor Racing.

Oakland, Cal., January 4 .- The racing public is beginning to show much concern over the continued absence of presiding judge E. C. Hopper from the stewards' stand at Oakland. Mr. Hopper has been ill for three days. The unusual spectacle of a mob of howling spectators crowding around the judges' pagoda after the placing of numbers in the fifth race today emphasized the pressing need of his services. Exaggerated rumors of his illness have been current. Starter Holtman was again hissed after the start of the fourth race, won by Andrew Mack." This horse was an odds-on favorite and was nearly left at the post. The fault lay entirely to the horse's sleepy jockey.

spectators believed that El Chihuahua passed the wire an easing up second in front of Bushthorpe in the fifth race, and when the placings reversed this order they congregated about the judges' stand.

Miller's riding again was the feature of the day's racing. The champion jockey scored his usual two winning mounts. With the exception of the last, the cheapest class of horses were engaged in the contests. The weather was gloomy and track resembled a canal. Neptunus was a receding favorite and the regular Durnell plunge was conspicuous by its absence.

LATONIA CASE TO BE HEARD TODAY.

Mayor Earle Says He Intends to Fight the Matter to a Finish.

Covington, Ky., January 4.-Mayor Earle and the city of Latonia filed answers in the Circuit Court yesterday to the injunction petition of the Latonia Agricultural Association, which sought to prevent the city of Latonia from tearing down a portion of the fence around the race course. The City Council of Latonia recently passed an ordinance ordering the racing associations to remove the fence from certain streets which, it was alleged, had been dedicated. Λ few days ago the association made application in the Circuit Court for an injunction against Mayor Earle and the city of Latonia, and a restraining order was issued and the motion for an injunction set for a hearing tomorrow.

In his answer Mayor Earle admitted that it was his intention to tear down the fence unless restrained by the Courts, and accompanying the answer of the city of Latonia were thirty-five deeds to lots embraced in the race course tract conveying the property to the agricultural association, which were filed as exhibits. Each of these deeds sets out that the property transferred abuts on certain streets, giving their names.

A copy of the Jones subdivision, one third of which is within the racetrack inclosure, also was filed as an exhibit. The portion of the Jones subdivision outside the inclosure is built up with nouses, and most of the streets have been improved. This copy shows that streets were laid out and extended into the race course.

Mayor Earle says that he intends to fight this legal battle to the end, and that he will not cease in his efforts to force the racetrack off dedicated streets until he wins or the highest court in the state enjoins him from doing so.

WINNING HORSES DURING YEAR 1906.

Accountant Heads the List of the 177 Earning $5,000 or More Each.

No Sysonby was abroad in 1906 to roll up a huge total of winnings, but a combination of favoring circumstances enabled the sturdy and consistent colt Accountant to finish at the head of the list of winning horses, with a sum to his credit not frequently surpassed by an American three-year-old. Not of the highest class, he was a colt that any owner might justly take pride in and, after the enforced retirement of the much superior Burgo-master, he honestly earned all that fell to him by readily vanquishing such opposition as he was called upon to meet. Three superior two-year-olds came next to him as money earners, the big sum that annually goes to a Futurity winner, serving to give Electioneer second place in the list over the crack Salvidere. The latter was generally deemed the best two-year-old of the year, but unfortunately was not a Futurity eligible. Water Pearl was a star in the spring and early summer racing, but an accident forced his early retirement -and it remains for his three-year-old form to demonstrate whether or not he is what Mr. Haggin was accredited with pronouncing him, the best colt ever bred at Rancho del Paso. Other two-year-olds that won $20,000 or more for their owners were Court Dress, Ballot, Peter Pan, De Mund and Oran. In fact the two-year-olds played a great part as money winners in 1906. Seven of that age won $20,000 or more in 1905, their combined winnings being $197,-504; whereas in 1906, eight in that class piled up a grand total of $331,280, the difference being quite remarkable. The respective figures for the two-year-olds are as follows:

Burgomaster$	39,500	Electioneer$	53,701
Ormondale	35,660	Salvidere
Mohawk II	33,540	Water Pearl	42,560

Security	20,850	De Mund	28,600
		Oran	26,835
Total$	197,504	Transfer III
		Total e	991 990

Of the other conspicuous money gainers of the year Go Between led the horses four years old and over, and was a distinctly creditable representative of the premier sire of the year. Sir Huon came next to Accountant among the three-year-olds and had he remained in good form through the year might have seriously threatened the latter's supre-macy. Roseben maintained his position as the champion sprinter and won more money than he did in 1905.

At the fifty principal meetings in 1906, the number of horses sharing in the distribution of the $5,191,681 given as prize money for the 6,840 races decided, was 3,506. Of this number 177 horses won $5,000 or more and their winnings aggregated $2,-038,185, leaving for the 3,329 horses winning less than $5,000 each the sum of $3,153,496. The list of honor of those winning $5,000 or more reads as follows:

Winner—B. g, by Rey el Santa Anita—Los Angeles (trained by H. G. Bedwell).

Went to post at 2:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Los Angeleno ran in close pursuit of the pacemakers for six and a half furlongs, then moved up fast and dashed into a decisive lead when well straightened out for home. Freesias made up ground gradually throughout and, under a sharp hand ride, came fast at the end. Komombo was under keea urging through the last eighth and finished gamely. Baldo finished with a rush. Sherry and Needful showed speed and three doubles are the stress trides. The winner was in for $400; no bid.

Scratched—66236 Baron Esher, 109; 66251 Jack Little, 104.

Miss May Bowdish quickly took a forward position and was reserved in hand to the last turn, then dashed into the lead in a twinkling and won as her rider pleased. El Chihuahua, on the inside in the worst going throughout, took an early lead and quickly gave way to the winner, but finished pulled up and should have been second. Lady Fashion, shuffled to the rear at the start, lost a half dozen lengths and made up a lot of ground in a cracking race. Yellowstone quit early and likes heavier going. Hainault is not good.

Winner—Ch. c, by Gold Heels—Salvia (trained by V. H. Terry).
Went to post at 3:54. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same: Clamor, from a lucky start, ran close up to the far turn, then galined steadily and, finishing in the worst going, got up in the last stride of a game race. Gateway set and forced the pace from the start, but swerved all over the stretch and lost a certain victory by doing so. Neptunus was ridden a waiting race and came fast in the last quarter, but could not quite get up. Beechwood was prominent throughout and finished a fast going fourth. Plausible helped force the pace for six furlongs, but failed to stay. Crow-Stratched—66208 Grace G., 92.

Winner—B. c, by Woolsthorpe—Contessa (trained by L. Schuckman).

Went to post at 2:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Wooltessa ran to her best form, fought it out hard through the stretch with Duessa and won out gamely in the closing strides. The latter, probably best, ran a good race, but was poorly handled and tiring at the finish. Knighton showed speed to the stretch, but tired badly after going a good half. Madenia ran fairly well and did the best she could. The Glad Corsair was close up throughout. Miss Willie, running green and weakly handled, can do much better and has worked well. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—B. f, by Russell—La Tour (trained by W. L. Lewis).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Colloquy broke fully in motion and, setting a fast pace under restraint, drew away in the stretch when called on and won with plenty in reserve. Judge Davey began slowly and went wide into the stretch, but finished with a rush and wore down De Oro in the closing strides. De Oro was a forward contender for the first half, but tired in the stretch drive. Voting suffered from crowdiag in the early stages and seemed to sulk thereafter. The others were always outrun.

Winner—Ch. c, by Smile—Orbed Maiden (trained by T. Murray).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Orbicular, in his present good form, was much the best, had to go around the others on the first turn, moved up into a contending position before going a quarter and, going steadily, wore down Missouri Lad in the stretch and won well in hand. Missouri Lad ran a good race and showed much speed, but tired slightly when called on strongly for a final effort. St. Valentine finished gamely, but could not concede the weight. Terri's Rod came from a long way back in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Lady Ellison tired after going three-quarters. Dromio showed speed for a half and forced a fast pace. Besterling ran poorly and can do much better.

Went to post at 4:32. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily: second driving; third the same, Adbell, well handled and running to his best form, was a close contender from the start and, soon taking the lead, held the others safe in the final drive and won well in hand. Lemon Girl showed a good performance and moved up resolutely after going a half, but tired near the end. Scaiplock went wide smost of the way and closed a big gap in the stretch. Omar Khayyam was taken around the others on the first turn and showed speed in racing into a contending position, but tired in the last quarter. Delphie had no mishaps and can do much better. Langford James ran a good race for him. Mazie O'Neill, away slowly and given a bad ride, had scant chance. Red Light ran far below her best form and can do much better.
